This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

NOTARY FEES.

The last session of the Territorial Legislature repealed that portion of the law regarding the payment by the Secretary of the Territory to the Auditor of three-fifths of the fees received for commissions to Notaries Public, to be used in the payment of clerical assistance for the Governor. After my accession to office the late Secretary of the Territory, the Hon. M. L. McCormack, paid into my hands the fees remaining in his possession belonging to the fund referred to, amounting to $213.00, which sum I turned over to the Territorial Treasurer, and it was covered into the Territorial general fund.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The present Territorial Auditor would recommend to the succeeding States that a fiscal year be established that will bring a uniformity about in all accounts and appropriations; and would recommend that all appropriations go into effect on the first day of July and cease to be available after the thirtieth day of June. Under old laws and old practices one appropriation would go into effect on one date, and another on some other date; the fiscal year of one office would end at one time, and that of another at some other time; appropriations would go into effect one year on one date and the next at another date, and the result was an almost endless confusion of accounts. In view of this confusion of accounts, and the necessity of a better system, it is hereby earnestly recommended that the fiscal year in all departments of the State begin on July 1, and end on June 30, as heretofore advised.

ASSESSMENT AND TAXATION.

The total assessment of property in the Territory in 1887 was $157,084,365.99; in 1888 it was $161,420,974.32, and in 1889 was $164,199,876.90, the latter of which is given in detail by counties.

While the total assessment for 1889 is but about three millions more than in 1888, the fact that the large bodies of railroad lands of North Dakota were assessed last year, but owing to the law of the last Legislature were not assessed this year, would make a difference of several millions, thus showing a satisfactory increase in values since the last assessment. By annexed tables it will be seen that there has been a slight increase in average value of land and swine, while there is a decrease in average value of horses, mules and cattle; and sheep average the same. The total value of town lots has increased nearly two and one-half millions. Of the entire valuation, 56 per cent. is land; 13 per cent. live stock, and 31 per cent. unenumerated —such as town lots and personal property of various kinds aside from live stock. The direct tax to the Territory on the assessed valuation will yield a revenue of $492,599,63. This, of course, does not represent the entire revenue, as railroad, telegraph, express and insurance companies pay a tax on their gross earnings. The assessment here given is divided as to the two divisions of the Territory as represented by what will be the States of North and South Dakota.

At the beginning of the present year there was a large sum due from various railroads for taxes upon the gross earnings, which had been withheld until a settlement could be made or the matter adjudicated in the courts; but the last legislature re-enacted the "gross earnings" law in such a manner that suits were withdrawn and the taxes that had been withheld paid into the Territorial treasury.

A better system of assessment and equalization should be adopted, as at present a considerable amount of property escapes the payment of its just proportion of the expense of government—such as stocks and shares, corporate property, grain in elevators and moneys and credits.

I would recommend that the State Boards of Equalization be given power to increase or decrease the assessment as returned by the various counties, and to equalize taxes by raising or lowering assessments instead of by varying the rate as under the present law.

A tax is one of the responsibilities of citizenship and should not be considered a burden, for governments cannot be conducted without revenue, and the people cannot be protected in their individual rights without government. The object of all revenue laws should be to make as nearly an equal division of taxes upon all classes of property as possible, and no injustice is done any industry or any class of property in compelling it to pay its due proportion of the expenses of government, and there should be no exceptions and no privileged classes.

The law provides that every insurance company doing business in the Territory, except companies organized under the laws of the Territory, shall pay into the Territorial treasury a tax of two and one-half per cent. of the gross amount of premiums received in the Territory. The amount so paid as taxes for the year 1888 (paid in 1889) was $21,165.60.

AID FOR FIRE DEPARTMENTS.

The law also provides that in any organized town or city where a regular fire department is maintained, as set forth in said law, two per cent of the tax received from insurance premiums in said town shall be paid to the cities or towns for the benefit of said fire department. Under this provision the following premiums have been reported on business in said towns and the amount of tax set opposite has been paid:

NEW COMPANIES.

Since the last report there has been one new fire insurance company organized, viz: The Phœnix Insurance Company of North Dakota, at Minot, with a paid up capital of $100,000. With the assistance of a competent expert, I examined the moneys and securities of this company and found that they fully complied with the law before issuing certificate of authority to do do business.

There have also been organized in this office the present year, according to law, the following hail insurance companies: The James River Mutual Hail Association, of Ludden; the North Dakota Hail Association, of Cooperstown; the Importers and Breeders Mutual Stallion Indemnity Association, of Madison; the Dakota Hail Association, of Plankinton; the Farmers Home, of Highmore, and the LaMoure County Mutual, of LaMoure, all of which have been organized under the Territorial law enacted by the last legislature.

There have been no failures during the year of insurance companies authorized to do business in the Territory.

INSURANCE LEGISLATION.

It may not be generally known, but there is no law in Dakota for the organization or control of life insurance companies, and it is hereby respectfully urged that such legislation as may bring these companies under official suyervision be enacted at an early day.

It is also urged that a stringent law be enacted governing mutual benefit and assessment companies and associations, as at present there is no law on our statute books by which the Auditor can compel them to make statements of their business or condition, nor prevent them from doing business.

I would also recommend that the law governing insurance companies organized under the laws of Dakota be amended so as to require each company so organized and doing business to keep on deposit with the Auditor fifty per cent. of the securi ties representing capital stock loaned by the company. In no other way can the Auditor be certain that the securities are actually owned by the company.
